PIP News

In this case the court upheld an arbitrator's decision disqualifying CURE's UCR expert and rejecting the expert's findings because the methodology used was unreliable and flawed. The court also ruled the certification from the billing representative, the bills presented to other insurers, and the copies of checks paid by the insurers were enough to satisfy the UCR burden.

Team Member Spotlight

Nicole Fortino is a senior associate attorney at Judd Shaw Injury Law. She has practiced law since July 2014 and joined the Judd Shaw Injury Law team in May 2018. Nicole says "When someone hires a lawyer to pursue a demand for arbitration or file a lawsuit, it represents years of hard work, their family's future, and the power to make a living for the rest of his or her life. At Judd Shaw Injury Law, it's our job to protect those things."
